PEOPLE WORKING TOGETHER FOR THE FUN OF IT!

Note: This is an abbreviated Mobile Manor Monthly. A full issue will appear next month.

There are two events at the Community Center before month's end. Both are open to all residents. 1.) Rib and Kraut Cook-off - Sunday, October 29th, at 4 pm. If you are interested in entering, contact Helen Gillispie. If you just want some good eats, bring a dessert and your appetite. Donations will be accepted. 2.) Halloween Party - Tuesday, October 31st, from 7-10 pm. It is sponsored by Bev Miller, Sandy Hale, and Brian Hahn. There will be a prize awarded for best costume and other games with prizes. Please bring an appetizer/snack dish and/or drinks to share.

Hurricane Irma struck Mobile Manor on the afternoon and evening of Sept. 10th. In the early light of Sept. 11th some of the first impressions were of total devastation and, for those residents whose property sustained significant damage, those impressions were pretty much borne out. But, all in all, Mobile Manor and its people turned out to be tougher than the storm. That's especially true of the year-round residents, some of whom stayed put and most of whom returned home as soon as they could. Their mere presence, not to mention all the work they did, was a godsend for the rest of us. Thank you and God bless you all.

Summer events: Helen Gillispie reports that Ken Doolin hosted two Community Social Dances. The first, in May, was attended by 43 who danced, listened to music, and enjoyed refreshments which they brought to share. The second, in Sept., was attended by 35 to 40 who enjoyed door prizes and snack food which they brought to share. Helen hosted two events in her home. The first in June was a Tea Party attended by 10. The second in August was an Ice Cream Social attended by 9. In July Mick Gray, Rick Gillispie, and Joe Milano hosted a Hamburger and Hotdog Lunch for $1 per person. The 60 attendees brought more food to share. Joe donated three $10 Walmart gift certificates for door prizes. Others helping included Helen, Myrna Gray, and Carole Stevens. $77 was donated to the Social Club. Each event was enjoyed by all. Thanks to all who hosted and attended.
